From the Parochial Vicar:

When I began my assignment two years ago, I said I was excited to begin my life as a priest here in Ville Platte. I said I was excited because I had a sense of something only now I can accurately articulate. When I think back on the numerous fond memories of these last two years, I think about the many ways in which Ville Platte is authentically Catholic. I have found here such a profound reverence for God and a deep love of family. These two aspects contribute to the intense love for life that I was so often blessed to be a part of during my time here.

This recognition of God's blessings and a strong desire for His mercy are what have made my time in Ville Platte so special. This authentic Catholicism strengthens priestly vocations. My time in Ville Platte means much more to me than the past two years. They are foundational for the next fifty. It's with that in mind that I want to say thank you to all of you who have helped me learn and remember what it is to be a priest of Jesus Christ. God has been so good to me because, over the past two years, I have been blessed to witness so many occasions of God remaining faithful to His people. I am so very grateful to God, as we all ought to be, for the many blessings He has given to us and our neighbors.

I also wish to thank our Lord in a particular way for the blessing of Fr. Joshua Guillory. Fr. Guillory has indeed been a personal blessing to me in many ways. Faithful Catholics pray for their priests. Please continue to keep Fr. Guillory and Fr. Harrington in your daily prayers. I ask you also to pray for me in the coming weeks as I transition to a new assignment to begin serving the people of Our Lady of Wisdom on the campus of UL. Thank you all for your hospitality and kind words, but most especially for your prayers and your witness to Jesus Christ. May God grant us the grace to persevere in faithfulness to Him who has told us in this weekend's Gospel, "Go and proclaim the Kingdom of God."

In the Sacred Heart,
Fr. McIntyre
