Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

In the summer months when many of us take some time away to be on vacation with our friends and families, the question often arises: "Father, what about going to Sunday Mass when we're on vacation?" The simple answer is: "You have to go."

However, sometimes vacation destinations make it impossible (or nearly so) to attend Sunday Mass. Or sometimes we are required to travel on Sundays and are unable to attend Mass. What to do in these situations? The answer: Come and talk to one of your priests before leaving. The priests of the Diocese of Lafayette have the faculty of dispensing from the obligation of attending Sunday Mass if there is a just and proportionate reason. Simply talk to one of us, explain the situation, and we will determine whether or not we can dispense you from the Sunday obligation. Usually, we'll ask you and your family to set aside some brief time on Sunday for prayer if we dispense you from Sunday Mass (like praying the Rosary together or reading the Sunday readings).

And don't forget to check out the website www.masstimes.org. It will help you find the nearest Catholic Church and Mass times pretty much wherever you are.
