PRAYER FOR SAFETY DURING HURRICANE SEASON:

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children. The Sea of Galilee obeyed your order and returned to its former quietude; you are still the Master of land and sea. We live in the shadow of a danger over which we have no control. The Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant, can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep its conventional boundaries, invade our land and spread chaos and disaster. During this hurricane season, we turn to You, O loving Father. Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with the passing of time. O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our Beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son in our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem where a storm-less eternity awaits us. Amen.

PRAYERS FOR OUR DIOCESAN PRIESTS:

Each day, please remember the following Priests in prayer:

Monday, Oct. 6: Rev. Daniel Picard,
Tuesday, Oct. 7: Rev. Mikel Polson,
Wednesday, Oct. 8: Rev. Ruben Primor,
Thursday, Oct. 9: Rev. Herve Racivitch, SJ,
Friday, Oct. 10: Rev. Hernando Ramirez, SJ,
Saturday, Oct. 11: Rev. Francis Renfroe, SJ,
Sunday, Oct. 12: Rev. Louis Richard

Eternal Father, we lift up to You these and all the priests of the world. Sanctify them. Heal and guide them. Mold them into the likeness of Your Son, Jesus, the Eternal High Priest. May their lives be pleasing to You. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

- World Mission Day. That World Mission Day may rekindle in every believer zeal for carrying the Gospel into all the world.

CHURCH ETIQUETTE:

With the growing blurring of the line between sacred and secular, it is common to view the Church as being old and out-of-touch with the modern culture. As Catholics, the church is the visible sign of the community of the faithful. However we should be mindful that when we enter the church, we are entering a sacred space. As we enter this sacred space we should take care to respect it. Respect may be visible shown by our dress style, our demeanor at Holy Mass, our restriction of unnecessary movement and noise, and our prayerful attitude and attention during and after Holy Mass.

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE FOR LOVED ONES LOST TO SUICIDE

Recent national headlines have brought about a renewed focus on the causes and tragedy of suicide. Many local families have been directly affected by personal guilt and concerns associated with a loved one taking their own life. Since Vatican II, the Church recognizes that it bears responsibility to comfort those who mourn, and offer hope for the eternal state of those lost to suicide.

FROM THE PASTOR

"My heart's desire and prayer to God for them is that they may be saved." Romans 10:1

Mes chers amis,

This month of October is traditionally observed by faithful Catholics as the Month of the Holy Rosary, with the liturgical memorial of Our Lady of the Rosary on October 7. This month is meant to inspire us to rediscover this traditional prayer, so simple yet so profound.

As Pope St. John Paul II often reminded us, the Holy Rosary is a powerful way of contemplating the face of Christ...of seeing Him with the eyes of Mary. At its core, the Rosary is based on the Gospel scenes of the life of Christ. Throughout the Church's history, it has been a fundamental way of getting to know Jesus and a great source of personal conversion. The Rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary has been a source of comfort for those in sorrow or fear as well as a powerful weapon in the face of dangers and evil threats. The Second Vatican Council fully endorsed it for our times, and each Pope since - Pope St. John Paul II, Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, and now Pope Francis - have enthusiastically recommended it.

The importance of rediscovering the power of the Holy Rosary is seen in regard to our great need for peace. The threat of Terrorism continues to grow stronger and wars continue to be waged. In each of her apparitions (Rue de Bac [Paris], Lourdes, Fatima), Our Lady has called for the praying of the Rosary precisely for peace. How desperately we need her powerful intercession to convert the hearts of sinners and bring the peace of God's presence to our world! This is true for nations...but also for families. How much peace would flow into family relationships if the family would begin again to pray the Rosary together.

Let us strengthen our devotion to Holy Rosary by praying it daily and with great faith during this month of October. Our Lady, Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, pray for us!

Dans le Sacré Cœur du Christ,
Fr. Vidrine
