Dear Parishioners of Sacred Heart of Jesus,
I want to say one final thank you to all of you for welcoming me to your parish and allowing me to serve this community for the past few months. I have received so many blessings from my being here with you—God gave me a truly great assignment. You certainly have a strong faith and an open heart for Christ, and that has taught me so much about the priesthood. And I also want to thank you for all the kindness and generosity you have shown me. I now prepare for my return to Notre Dame seminary in New Orleans for my last year. Know that I will miss each and every one of you. Though it is hard for me to leave, I do so knowing that soon I will be ordained to the Holy Priesthood of Jesus Christ. I ask that you keep me in prayer during my last year of formation, and know that I am praying for all of you. I hope to see you again one day, especially as a priest! May God bless you all!

Yours in Christ,
Deacon Michael DeBlanc
