

from the Pastors Desk.

Devotion to the Blessed Mother of our Lord Jesus Christ is one of the true hallmarks of our Catholic faith. One could go so far as to say that we cannot truly love the Lord Jesus as we ought if we fail to acknowledge, honor, and love the Blessed Virgin Mary.

One of ways we Catholics have traditionally venerated the Blessed Virgin is by offering special Masses, called votive Masses, in her honor. These are often celebrated on Saturdays, when the liturgical calendar permits their celebration.

Since the early 1900s, at the urging of the visionaries of Fatima, Catholics have been in the practice of attending Mass, reciting the Rosary, and confessing their sins on the first Saturday of each month, for five consecutive Saturdays, as an act of reparation for sins and sacrileges committed against the Immaculate Heart of Mary.

More information on this devotion can be found online at www.fivefirstsaturdays.com and on the Wikipedia article entitled "First Saturday Devotions."

At Sacred Heart, a Mass is celebrated every Saturday at 8 a.m. I encourage all of you to consider making the first Saturday devotion to our Lady a part of your devotional and spiritual life. It cannot fail to bear the fruits of grace and holiness that we all need.

Please mark your calendars for the next few first Saturdays and plan on attending (with your children or grandchildren): November 3, December 1, January 5, February 2, March 2.
