FROM THE PASTOR

Dear parishioners,

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints. This is a catch-all day for all those who have died and are in heaven. Certainly many of our ancestors are there, and everybody in heaven is a saint. Some are canonized publicly because of their outstanding virtues which we are called to imitate. We are all called to be saints now.

Today we have the blessing of the cemeteries. Check the bulletin elsewhere for times.

Tomorrow we celebrate All Souls' Day. On that day we pray for all the souls in purgatory. They cannot help themselves and so depend on our prayers and penances. Eventually everyone in purgatory will get to heaven. Sin has effects in our lives. Forgiveness must be done on earth. Purgatory deals with the effects of sins to our souls. For every action there is a reaction. When we do good, it affects our souls in a good way. When we do bad, it affects our souls in a bad way. It is these effects that purgatory deals with. So let us pray for their souls, offer Masses for them, and do penance for them. Surely when they get to heaven they will pray for us even more.

On Tuesday night at 6:00pm, we will have a new altar server training. This is for kids that would like to begin serving. This is for girls and boys 4th grade on up.

This is Homecoming week for Sacred Heart School. We invite all alumni to return and show your school spirit. We love our alumni!

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr-Tom

Fr. Thomas Voorhies

Fr. Tom's Joke of the Week

There's a story of the pastor and his deacon who were volunteering as carpenters to fix roofs for needy parishioners.

The deacon was on a ladder nailing. Each time he reached into his nail pouch and pulled out a nail, he'd look at it, and either toss it over his shoulder or nail it into the roof.

The pastor watched for a while, puzzled. Then he couldn't stand it any longer and yelled up, "Why are you throwing away some of the nails?"

The deacon explained, "When I pull it out of my nail pouch, if it pointed toward me I throw it away. If it's pointed toward the house, then I can use it safely!"

The pastor became very frustrated at this and shouted, "That's stupid! Don't throw away the nails that are pointed toward you! They're for the other side of the roof!"

CATHOLIC READING:

We have several resources available for you to take advantage of concerning our Catholic Faith. One literature rack contains pamphlets on some of the key doctrines, dogmas, and views of the Church on issues. The other is through Light House Publications and contains materials for reading as well as audio CDs. Please take time to look over these items. They are located at the south exit of the church beneath the organ/choir gallery.

PARISHIONERS FOR LIFE: MOTIVATING MEMBERS TO HELP END ABORTION

Where We Begin...

“In protecting human life, we must begin with a commitment never to intentionally kill, or collude in the killing, of any innocent human life, no matter how broken, unformed, disabled or desperate that life may seem. We urge Catholics and others to promote laws and social policies that protect human life and promote human dignity to the maximum degree possible. Laws that legitimize abortion, assisted suicide, and euthanasia are profoundly unjust and immoral. We support constitutional protection for unborn human life, as well as legislative efforts to end abortion and euthanasia” (Faithful Citizenship, US Bishops, 2003).

COME HOME FOR CHRISTMAS

As Advent approaches, we celebrate the coming of Jesus. During this particular season of the Liturgical Year, we are reminded of our family and friends who have drifted away from the church.

Once again, the Diocese of Lafayette will be sponsoring their annual “Come Home for Christmas Campaign.” We want our brothers and sisters to return home to be with their spiritual family.

Every active Catholic is encouraged to invite someone to accompany them to Mass on Christmas Day. Offer to pick them up and bring them with you.

Please pray for the success of this outreach!

We also encourage you to participate in your parish program by submitting to the Parish Office the name of a special friend or family member that you would like to invite to Come Home for Christmas.

Please submit the names and addresses by Monday, November 30th.

Returned to Christ through death:

HOLY LAND Pilgrimage June 8-16, 2016

Spiritual Director: Fr. Mitch Guidry Our Lady Queen of All Saints

In a real way, making a pilgrimage to the Holy Land draws us closer to Jesus of Nazareth. The Scriptures will come alive as we visit Our Lord’s homeland, and each day we will have time to renew and affirm our faith—to pray and reflect.

Come, as we follow in the Footsteps of Jesus!

For more information, contact Magnificent Travel: (337) 291-1933

Or Anne-Christine Jagneaux after 3:00pm at (337) 831-9064 For Pilgrimage Highlights and more details, visit our website www.sacredheartvp.com

Ministry for the Dying

“The most important hour of life is the hour of death” Our Lord said that when the Divine Mercy Chaplet is said in the presence of the dying “I will stand between My Father and the dying person, not as the just Judge but as the Merciful Savior”. If you would like the Divine Mercy Chaplet said for someone who is near death, please call: Karen 336-1775 (all calls are confidential)

Upcoming Back to Basics Lecture

“When Moses died, God buried him (Dt. 34:5-6). When Jesus died, he was buried (1 Cor. 15:3-4). Throughout salvation history, God has shown that burial is proper for mankind. Why? Come find out the answer at the next Back to Basics lecture, “Christian Burial and the Dignity of the Human Body.”

The FREE lecture, being given by Fr. Mitchell Guidry, will be Nov. 9, at 5:30pm, at the OLQAS Family Life Center.

All are invited to attend.
